

Wing Takes Rumor

The Presidential candidates won't name their favorites in the Secretary of State sweepstakes, but the wise word around Washington is that Senator J. W. Fulbright, Democrat of Arkansas, may be moving into competition.

Mr. Fulbright is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He felt that his recent well-publicized pot shots at the Eisenhower Administration, the State Department and Vice President Nixon have done him—Mr. Fulbright—no harm.

But dealers in such speculation may be overlooking a sure thing. David K. E. Bruce, former Ambassador to Germany and also a Democrat, is adding an imposing wing to his Georgetown home.
